Teacher of the week

Mrs.Nail

Mrs. Nail loves teaching high school students because she can watch them grow from year to year and have conversations with them. If she had to pick a favorite math to teach, it would be Algebra 2 she loves the content. She “lost” alot of her passion but teaching algebra 2 brought that passion back like “second breath” and made it where she loves what she is doing. Advice she would give her seniors is “Savor every moment you have of high school” These are moments that you will never experience again and never get back. Make a difference wherever you go, no matter how small!!

JR HIGH STUDENT OF THE WEEK

ELLA PENDER

Ella is a 8th grader who plays softball, basketball, and volleyball. She plans to attend LSU in the future.

High School

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Bethany Hood

A young boy with dark hair, wearing a light-colored polo shirt and dark pants, stands in a field of tall green grass with small white flowers. He is holding a large, open umbrella with a grey and red plaid pattern. The background is a blurred cityscape under a grey, overcast sky.

JV Girls Softball

“My thoughts about the upcoming season are very good. I think that everybody will get better and will improve. The way I have prepared myself for a good season by working very hard and not expecting everything to be given to me. I have worked for everything. I have practiced almost everyday of the week and on Saturdays.”
